

ROUNDTABLE

of the BULGARIAN–HUNGARIAN HISTORY COMMISSION

3 October 2023, 10:00–13:30.

Venue: HUN-REN RCH Institute of History

1097 Budapest, Tóth Kálmán str 4, 7th floor „Trapéz” Room

Historical Perspectives on Integration in Central and Southeast Europe

within the frame of the joint academic project, entitled

“Integration and Disintegration in Central and Southeast Europe, 17th –21st Centuries

Moderators

Gábor Demeter & Penka Peykovska

Opening

Penka Danova (IHS–BAS)

Какая религия была самой распространенной в Европе по подсчетам Джованни Ботеро в 1611 г.? (Which Religion was the Most Widespread in Europe according to Giovanni Botero's Calculations in 1611?)

Gábor Demeter (IH–RCH / HUN-REN)

From soft imperialism to colonization: Hungary in the Balkans (1867–1914)

Krisztián Csaplár-Degovics (IH–RCH / HUN-REN)

Bosnia-Herzegovina: the Habsburg Colony (1878–1918)

Csaba Zsebők

Hungary's Balkan policy under István Bethlen (1921–1931)

Vanya Stoyanova (IHS–BAS)
Integration of Refugees in Bulgarian Society in the Period between the Two World Wars

Penka Peykovska (IHS–BAS)
Immigrants and Refugees' Labour Market Integration in Bulgaria in the 1920s

László Bíró (IH–RCH / HUN-REN)
Бывшие члены венгерского парламента в Югославии (Former Members of the Hungarian Parliament in Yugoslavia)

Playana Marcheva (IHS–BAS)
Catching up with the West during the “Peaceful Coexistence” in the 1960s: the Bulgarian Case

Attila Seres (Veritas Institute, IH–RCH / HUN-REN)
Переселение венгров из Закарпатья в Венгрию в 1963–1991 гг. (The Resettlement of Transcarpathian Hungarians to Hungary in 1963–1991)

Katalin Schrek (University of Debrecen, Institute of History)
The Historical Memory of the Bulgarian Ruler Ferdinand Coburg in the Public Collections in Slovakia

Lecturers have 15 minutes to present their lectures.